

Learn to Ride Metro Buses and Subway!

On the Move Travel Training is a FREE service that can get you where you need to go! The travel trainer can connect individuals with fare cards (MetroAccess, Reduced Fare and SeniorSmarTrip) then will travel on the MetroBus and/or subway with the individual. Some topics that are discussed during travel training include: route planning, emergency preparedness, safety features, general orientation/layout and accessibility features.

Please utilize the contact information below to get more information about the free service.
