

llame 703-237-0881

Para ayuda en español, por favor

Survivors of sexual assault and domestic violence can seek help at any time- no matter how long ago the assault took place. All survivors deserve support.

Arlington County Sexual & Domestic Violence Resources

Reporting an Assault. Available 24/7.

For law enforcement contact Arlington County Police: emergency, 9-1-1 & non-emergency, 703-558-2222

Crisis Support. Available 24/7.

For crisis support, safety planning and/or shelter services call the Doorways for Women and Families Hotline at 703-237-0881 or visit www.doorwaysVA.org

Medical Support. Available 24/7.

For medical support, including access to a forensic exam, call Inova Ewing Forensic Assessment and Consultation Team (FACT) at 703-776-4001 and ask to page a SANE nurse or visit www.inova.org/inova-in-the-community/fact Legal System Support. Available during business hours.

For support or questions about the legal process, call the Arlington County Victim/Witness Program at 703-228-4410 or Doorways Court Advocacy Program at 703-228-3749

Mental Health Services. Available during business hours.

Doorways Revive Counseling Program provides short-term counseling to adults and youth. For more information, call the Doorways Hotline at 703-237-0881

Arlington County Behavioral Healthcare Services offers counseling services. For more information, call 703-228-5150 or visit <https://health.arlingtonva.us/behavioral-healthcare>

Services provided by these Arlington SART member agencies are free.